OUR MISSION
Global Language Project (GLP) supports world-language learning through innovative teacher development and best-in-class curricula, thus enabling students, particularly those in underserved communities, to develop language proficiency for further education and the global workforce.

CAREER DAYS
GLP’s Career Days expose New York City elementary, middle and high school students to different career opportunities, with a special emphasis on the impact of world language and cultural competency skills. Career Day volunteers share about their personal experiences, and lead students in activities to think about career opportunities in the global workforce.

Structure

1: OFFICE BASED
- Weekdays between 10am - 2pm
- Organization hosts students and provides lunch or a snack
- Volunteer to student ratio of 1:5
- Host organization works with GLP to develop a central theme and activities
- Opportunity to work with students in a whole-class or small-group format

2: SCHOOL BASED
- Weekdays between 9am - 2:30pm
- Volunteers visit a NYC public school
- Volunteers commit to a minimum of two 50-minute class periods
- Volunteers present followed by a Q&A
- Opportunity to work with students in a whole-class or small-group format

Elvis L., 12th Grade Mandarin Student, Credit Suisse Career Day 2018:
I can apply the skills I learned at Career Day for future use at college or at my future workplace because teamwork and leadership skills will always be handy skills to have when working with others.

Past Partners Include:
- MORGAN STANLEY
- CREDIT SUISSE
- COUNCIL OF THE AMERICAS
- COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Contact Us: Thank you for your interest in participating in a GLP Career Day! To sign up, or for more details, please contact us at info@glpny.org or (646) 657-8075.